Course Profile	The academic Violin course allows young musicians to obtain a II level Academic Diploma of Higher Artistic and Musical Training (AFAM), equivalent to a master's degree. The study plan offers a high-quality path, favoring the acquisition of knowledge and skills inherent to performance through the improvement of instrumental technique in terms of agility, cantability, clarity, power, realisation and choice of the different types of sound through the adequate postural and gestural attitudes. Similarly, specialist skills relating to the various performance practices and the history of interpretation will be developed, in order to provide all the elements necessary to achieve a personal and consistent interpretation. The ability to interact within musical groups will be developed in the practice of ensemble music, a subject of specific in-depth studies. Theoretical teachings of history and analysis of compositional forms and repertoires, musical semiography and cultural marketing complete the training skills offered by the course. Numerous performance opportunities are available to students of the two-year course, to verify the progress made in preparation through public concerts, participation in which is considered an integral part of the course. The training course takes advantage of the opportunity to participate in the Erasmus+ program, carrying out some study periods abroad. At the end of the studies related to the Second Level Academic Diploma course, the student will have acquired a set of knowledge, skills and specialist level abilities which will allow them to concretely and independently carry out their own artistic projects at a professional level.

Level of Attainment/Final Objectives	The second level academic diploma course aims to provide students with an advanced level of training for the full mastery of artistic methods and techniques and for the acquisition of high professional skills
